DISTRICT COMMITTEE

Met at Williamsburg Last Saturday and Adopted Resolutions.

The following resolutions were adopted by the District Committee at the meeting held in Williamsburg last Saturday afternoon, which seem to be fair and were agreed to by both Mr. Powers and Mr. Edwards.

They set forth how the election shall be held and who shall participate in the approaching primary, and are as follows:

1. Resolved: That a primary election to be held September 15, 1910, at the regular voting place in each precinct in each county composing the Eleventh Congressional District, having heretofore, on the 30th day of April, 1910, been called by this committee for the purpose of nominating a Republican candidate to be voted for at the regular November election, 1910, for the office of Representative in the Lower House of Congress of the United States from said Eleventh District of Kentucky, the said primary shall be held under the following rules:

2. That the cost of holding this primary election shall be borne by the candidates before said primary and shall be divided equally among them, which amount shall be paid to the chairman of the District Committee not later than 12 o'clock, noon, on the 30th day of August, 1910.

3. The Republican County Committee in each county of the 11th Congressional District shall, on Monday, September 5th, 1910, meet at the County Seat and appoint election officers consisting of two judges, one sheriff and one clerk of election to serve in each precinct in the county, and such election officers shall be selected from lists of eight persons furnished by the various candidates to the said Republican County Committee on or before said 5th day of September, 1910, and should there be only two candidates for said nomination, then one-half of said election officers shall be selected and appointed from the list furnished by one candidate and the remainder of officers appointed from the list furnished by the other candidate, giving to each candidate one judge and dividing the sheriff and clerks as nearly equal as is practicable. Said election officers thus appointed shall be sworn before entering upon duties and shall have the same power and privileges as officers of regular state elections, and shall be subject to the same restrictions, limitations, and conditions, and their duties and responsibilities shall be precisely as those of the legally appointed and regularly qualified officers of regular state elections.

4. The Republican County Committee of each county, composing the 11th Congressional District, shall meet in the courthouse on the 17th day of September, 1910, and canvass and count the votes and return of its county, and the Chairman and Secretary of such County Committee shall certify the true results, and deliver a copy of same to A. T. Siler, Chairman of the 11th Congressional District Republican Committee. The Eleventh Congressional District Republican Committee shall meet on Monday, September 19th, at the courthouse in Williamsburg, Kentucky, and shall canvass and count the returns, certified by the various counties to the said Congressional District Committee, and shall issue the certificate of nomination to the candidate receiving the highest number of votes in all counties, and shall properly certify his name and nomination to the Secretary of State of Kentucky, requesting and directing that his name be printed on the official ballot to be used at the regular November election, 1910, in the Republican column under the device of the Republican party, to-wit, the Log Cabin, for the office named herein.

5. In case only one candidate shall meet the requirements of this call not later than 12 o'clock, noon, on the 30th day of August, 1910, this primary election shall not be held, but instead, the District Committee of said Congressional District shall meet in the town of Williamsburg on the 5th day of September, 1910, and shall declare such candidate to be the nominee of the Republican party, to be voted for at the said November election for the office named above and shall certify his name to the Secretary of State as set forth above.

6. The Chairman of each County Committee shall, not later than the 10th day of August, 1910, furnish the Chairman of the District Committee, the name and number of each voting precinct in his county, together with the number of Republican votes cast at the last Presidential election, the distance of said voting place to the county seat, the cost of the house in which to vote in each precinct and such other information as the District Chairman or Committee may request.

7. Each candidate meeting the requirement above, shall have his name printed upon the ballots to be used at said primary under the device selected by him.

8. No one shall be permitted to vote in said primary election except those who have heretofore supported the National and State Republican tickets and who are known Republicans, or will be at the November election, 1910.

On motion of Mr. Morrow, the following resolution was also adopted:

Resolved, that the Chairman of the District Committee be ordered and directed to publish the proper notice for the primary election, in compliance with the law, forty days before the primary, embodying the resolution as just adopted (being the same copied above)

Is Sure of Majority in Casey

Powers, Casey County, Ky.
July 12, 1910.

Hon. Caleb Powers spoke here to-day at 10 o'clock a. m., to one of the largest and most enthusiastic crowds ever assembled at this place to hear a political speech.

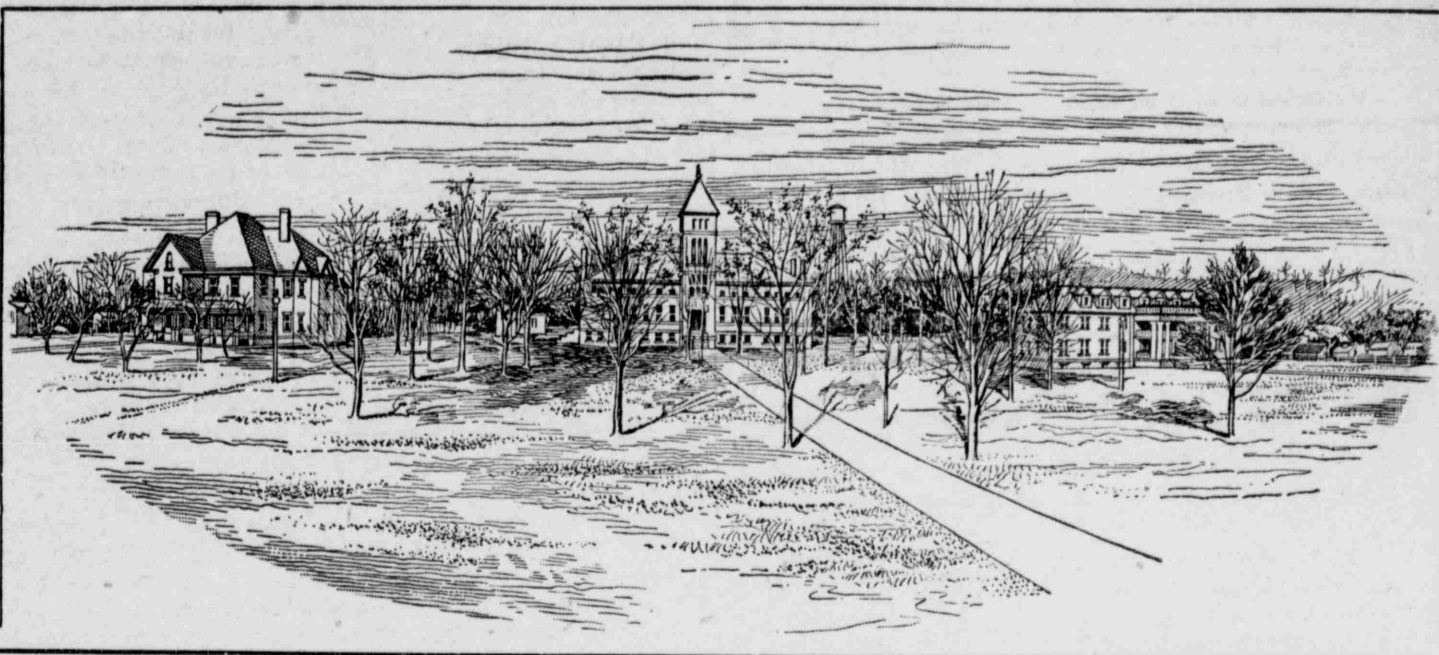

For about an hour Mr Powers presented his claims in a very forcible manner, being applauded frequently.

At length some one in the crowd asked him his position with regard to the old soldier, at the same time telling him that Judge Bethurum had said in a speech at Liberty, July 4th that Mr. Powers had said "To hell with the old soldiers. Mr. Powers said that it was an unqualified lie. That no man had a better feeling or would do more for them (when given a chance to do anything) for the old soldier than he. A goodly number of old soldiers were present and each assured Mr. Powers their support.

Our precinct is No. 5 in Casey and has about 60 Republicans. If there is one Edwards man in it he has yet to show up. Powers will carry Casey County overwhelmingly.

JOE MCWILLIAMS.

Judge J. H. Wilson, and his brother, T. S. Wilson left here this week for Canada, for the purpose of dealing in real estate. They expect to locate there.

UNION COLLEGE, Barbourville, Kentucky.

The above picture is a miniature representation of some of the buildings and grounds of Union College. The College is co-educational. It is prepared to afford and will afford equal advantages to young men and young women. It has SEPARATE college homes for them. Members of the Faculty will live in these Homes in close touch with the students, and thus be present and always ready and willing to give to the student any needed aid and attention. The Young Ladies' College Home will be occupied by the female members of the Faculty with the young ladies, students, while some of the male members of the Faculty will live in the Young Men's College Home with the young men students. The sanitary condition of the college is first class. To secure that condition, a well arranged private sewerage system, leading to the river, has been constructed and is in operation. The College has likewise its private water system with deep water wells as water supply, college water plant, central heating and electric light plants with scientific advantages in toilets and baths. A Faculty not out-classed anywhere in earnest, constant conscientious devotion to duty and the welfare of the student has been selected for the coming school year. And no effort will be omitted to make the year a highly profitable one to the student. The effort of the institution will be directed towards establishing in the life of the student, the Christian tone and habits of industry and economy. In the matter of expense to the student, embracing tuition, board, &c., Union College offers advantages which cannot suffer in any comparison with any other institution in the land. The coming school year will begin September 6th, 1910. For further particulars address

DR. PORTER

Delivered Very Forceful Lecture That Should be Heeded

Portrays in Vivid Colors the True Characters of Every Day Life

Dr. J. W. Porter, of Lexington, delivered a lecture last Thursday night at Union College Chapel before the Teachers' Institute that was considered by many to be one of the finest that was ever delivered in this city.

His subject for the occasion was "Sweethearts, Wives and Mothers," and his audience was thoroughly convinced before he concluded that he was familiar with his subject.

He showed how much more attention is ordinarily bestowed upon a sweetheart than there is after she becomes a life companion and how much more lovable she is after she becomes a wife. He paid his respects to the fussy old maid and urged all the lady school teachers to guard against becoming "fussy" old maids. He said that there was no crime in becoming an old maid but there was no excuse for being a "fussy old maid."

He discussed the Mother-in-law from the characteristic side and pictured her in many amusing comparisons.

"The Mother" he pictured with all her love, her cares, her burdens, her increasing love and devotion, with her silvered locks prematurely faded by cares and burdens of life, and made indeed a very pathetic and touching scene.

The twentieth century woman or the New Woman came in for a liberal share of his criticism and his word pictures were so true to life that the entire audience was kept in an uproar of laughter as he described her, riding in a passenger train with a "cute little tootsy wootsy pug dog" nestled snugly in her arms or mounted on horse-back astride and parading before the public gaze.

He said he saw one of these "New women" in Lexington riding down the street like a western cowboy, they call it astride but said he "I call it a straddle" and when he saw it he said he was so disgusted that he went home and wrote a little verse, expressing his opinion, but he would repeat it so quickly that no one in the audience would be able to catch it even in short hand it was this:

"I hope the women who ride a straddle—
Will rub the hide off where it touches the saddle"

His address was well received by everyone here except perhaps a few of the "New Women" who have indulged in horseback riding of late astride and who felt this was rather a public rebuke for their conduct.

G. M. Smith for State Senator.

The friends of G. Matt Smith' the popular Druggist of Corbin, Kentucky, are urging him to become a candidate for Senator in this, the 17th District, and if he should announce, as is expected in the near future, he certainly will be a formidable candidate.

Aside from his general popularity and standing in his District, he has also the indorsement of all of the temperance people, and this in the 17th District, composed of the Counties of Pulaski, Rockcastle, Whitley, Laurel, Jackson, Knox and Bell, is a pronounced advantage. The temperance folks are very much in the ascendency in these Seven (7) Counties. Mr. Smith is a well known, and popular young man and makes friends readily and holds them to the last.

For a number of years, Mr. Smith conducted a large Mercantile Business at Flat Lick, Knox County, Kentucky and has a long train of connection throughout the county. For several years past, however, he has been engaged in the Drug business in Corbin, Whitley County, where he has a large following. It is predicted that if he should enter the race that there would be no opposition to his nomination.

Four rings, two stages and a half mile hippodrome track are required to present the enormous array of startling acts on the programme. Three combined menageries comprise the most complete zoological exhibit ever carried by any traveling show.

To add to the variety, a complete wild west exhibition will be given by 50 cow boys, 30 cow girls, 50 real blanket Indians, a company of Russian Cossacks and Japanese Scouts, Mexican horsemen and South American Vaqueros. A company of United States Cavalry will present all kinds of fancy drills. There is a tribe of Singalese, and desert Arabs, and a Camp of the Nations, including hundreds of strange people from the far corners of the earth.

There will be a great street pageant every day at 10 o'clock, and two performances, afternoon and evening. No one should fail to see this great exhibition at Corbin, Friday, July 29.

Bold Thief.

Wednesday afternoon a man came into Parker Mercantile Store and expressed a desire to look at a pair of pants. Whereupon John Parker took him back to the clothing department and after enquiring the kind of pants desired began to show him the goods.

Finally the stranger asked for a black pair at about $2.50 whereupon he was informed they could not furnish him the black, he turned and walked out, but in some manner he managed to conceal four pair of pants under his coat that was hanging loosely on his shoulder before he left.

Before he reached the Depot he was arrested for drunkenness and the goods were found on him.

In Police court he admitted stealing the goods and said he had a pal who secured a load from one of the Stores in town and made his escape.

He was sent to jail for drunkenness and the charge of stealing is pending.

He gave his name as J. T. Hays.

An Editors Love Letter.

Dear darling delinquent! Our precious subscriber in arrears! You are to shy! Do you think that we have sold out and gone? No little sugar-plum we could not get away if we wanted to. We are still at the same old dishing out to the advertisers sweet promises and bright expectations.

They make an excellent diet darling, with a word of encouragement to serve as a desert. We are waiting and watching for thee, our turtle dove. We long to hear thy gentle footsteps on the stairway below and to hear the ring of the happy dollar within our office. Dear one, we feel unusually sad and lonely without you, dear. Now, my little pie crust, will you come? Do we hear you answer in a voice so sweet and beguiling. I'm coming or is it only the the winds that around our office roar? We pause for further development. —Ex.
